

"Textiles, clothing, leather and footwear"

Screening process with Serbia
Free Movement of Goods
20 June 2014

DG ENTERPRISE AND INDUSTRY
Textiles, Fashion, Design and Creative Industries

Legislation

Directive 94/11/EC relating to labelling of the materials used in the main components of footwear for sale to the consumer

Legislation

Regulation (EU) N° 1007/2011 on textile fibre names and related labelling and marking of the fibre composition of textile products

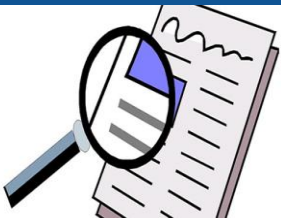

Directive 94/11/EC – Footwear Directive

Adopted : 23 March 1994

Applicable: 23 March 1996

Transitional period: 23 September 1997

Footwear Directive – main provisions

Must be labelled ('80% rule') - either pictograms or written indications:

☐ Main components of footwear :

- the upper, the lining and the sock, and the outer sole

☐ Materials used :

- leather, coated leather, textiles, all other materials

Footwear Directive – pictograms

Upper

Lining and inner sole

Outer sole

Leather

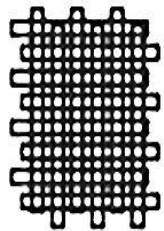

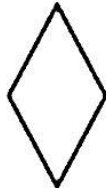

Coated leather

Textile

Other material

Regulation (EU) N° 1007/2011 – Textile Regulation

Adopted: 27 September 2011

Applicable: 8 May 2012

Transitional period: 9 Nov 2014 - textile products placed on the market before 8 May 2012 may continue to be made available on the market

Textile Regulation

From 3 Textile Directives to 1 Regulation

Regulation (EU) N° 1007/2011 repealed 3 Directives:

- 73/44/EEC
- 96/73/EC
- 2008/121/EC

Textile Regulation - main provisions (1)

Conditions of labels and marks indicating the fibre composition clarified ('80% rule')

Full fibre composition to be indicated

Exemption applicable to customised products made-up by self-employed tailors

Simplified framework for the adoption of new fibre names

Textile Regulation – main provisions (2)

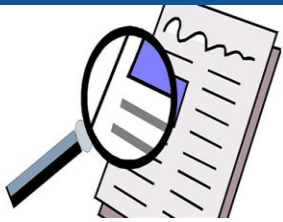

Article 12 : 'Contains non-textile parts of animal origin'

Empowerment of the Commission to adopt delegated acts amending the technical Annexes of the Regulation.

Reporting on the application of the Regulation (Article 23), review clause (Article 24) and study on hazardous substances (Article 25) to be undertaken by the Commission

Textile Regulation – Reports

- Report regarding possible new labelling requirements of textile products and on a study on allergenic substances in textile products
COM(2013)656 final of 25 September 2013
- Report on the application of the Textile Regulation – under preparation

Textile Regulation – binary and ternary fibre mixtures

Annex VIII lists methods for the quantitative analysis of binary and ternary fibre mixtures

Checks on the conformity of the fibre composition of textile products with the supplied information shall be carried out in accordance with methods in Annex VIII or with harmonised standards to be introduced

Related legislation

- PPE Directive 89/686/EEC
- Toys Directive 2009/48/EC
- REACH Regulation (EC) No 1907/2006
- UCPD Directive 2005/29/EC
- General Product Safety Directive
2001/95/EC
- ...

Thank you for your attention!

